GOOD FOOD FROM FAMILY FARMS

FARM AID

Keep America Growing!

We Started
WITH A MISSION

To build a vibrant, family farm-centered system of agriculture in America.

THE GOOD FOOD MOVEMENT

AND AN Important QUESTION

Could Farm Aid concerts really serve delicious, family farmed food to everyone?

ARTISTS

INSPIRED

The Movement

Willie Nelson, Neil Young, John Mellencamp and Dave Matthews as board members and artists distinguished Farm Aid as the first and only major concert event to ensure all menu items come from family farm sources.

THE GOOD FOOD MOVEMENT

Farm Aid's
HOMEGROWN

DELIVERS

The Goods

From hot dogs, burgers and brats to salad wraps, corn-on-the cob, apples and peaches; HOMEGROWN features traditional concession items along with fresh local food to surprise and delight.

THE GOOD FOOD MOVEMENT

WE OPEN

OPPORTUNITIES

FOR

Young People

Our HOMEGROWN Youthmarket sells local fresh fruits and vegetables, employing young people who market good food in their own communities.

We've
BUILT UP

OUR Know-How

We source food from family farms for 30,000 concert-goers, working with in-house concessionaires. Since 2007, more than 275,000 people have enjoyed HOMEGROWN Concessions.

WE'VE

Established

OUR OWN

CRITERIA

It's sustainably produced by family farmers, identified as local, organic, IPM, non-GMO, humanely raised, or utilizing other ecological practices, along with a fair price for farmers.

THE GOOD FOOD MOVEMENT

We've GATHERED

The Essential

INGREDIENTS

Through existing supply chains and by leveraging Farm Aid's relationships with family farmers, brands and cooperatives, our culinary director identifies HEMGROWN ingredients.

WE'VE
Established
OUR PIONEERING
BRAND

With a transparent supply chain that celebrates farmers and their production practices, HOMEGROWN enhances the pleasure of food at a festival.
